

LIGGETT LOSES FOOT

Bill Liggett, a conductor on the Six Companies Inc. railroad, lost his left foot late Sunday afternoon, when a train ran over it on a siding near the gravel pit.

Liggett was rushed to the Boulder City hospital, where it was found necessary to amputate his leg between the ankle and knee.