

Fire House Being Built By Company

3/29/35
A new fire house is being built by the Boulder City company to house its fire truck and equipment.

The house is being constructed between the north wings of dormitory three, and will be completed some time this week and ready for occupancy.

Members of the Boulder City Company fire department are housed in dormitory three adjacent.