
0

Both Legs Broken In Truck Wreck

Hank Tacke suffered fracture of both legs yesterday afternoon when two trucks with agitator bodies were wrecked near the lower portals.

It was early in the swing shift yesterday that the two trucks came together on the switchback below the Nevada lower portals, one of them fully loaded, with about 10 tons of concrete.

Tacke was rushed to the Boulder hospital for treatment. He is the brother of John Tacke, walker.