Dan Shovlin, age 45, was taken to the Boulder City hospital this morning in a serious condition, as the result of being run over by one of the heavy trucks in tunnel two. He died at 2 p. m. today.

Shovlin, who was employed as a nipper at the dam, was thrown under the heavy machine and suffered a broken pelvis, and, it is understood, was otherwise injured about the body.

He is survived by his widow, who is at present in the east.
