

Gasoline Thief is Thot Taken at Dan

57-3/32
Reservation officers last night found a suspicious looking car parked back of the Six Companies Inc., garage, and upon investigation they caught a man in the act of drawing gasoline from a nearby machine. Three people are now under arrest held on a suspicion of theft, and are occupying the Boulder City jail.

Dave Dalaney, who was caught by the officers in the act of stealing the gasoline is the chief offender, the other two are W. E. Carter, from the "Panhandle country" of Texas, and his wife Mrs. Dorothy Carter, of Macomb, Ill. The trio were in a Texas automobile.

Mrs. Carter, who was sitting in the car waiting for Dalaney when the officers arrested him, said that they were broke and had come to the reservation in search of a man called Clark who owed them some money.

Carter was arrested later and is being held on the same charge.
