

Moris Denies That He Faked Checks

That he printed or purchased fake Six Companies time checks, with which he victimized three Las Vegas stores, was yesterday denied by Thomas Moris. He stated to officers that he found the checks. Moris is being held in the county jail on a charge of having passed a number of the fictitious checks, the complaint was sworn out against him by Bryan Bunker, of Beckley's store.

According to those who cashed the checks Moris had spent only a small amount in each store, but the checks were for a larger amount, which he received as change.
