

MANY RESERVE OFFICERS FLY OVER DAM AREA

Training flights in U. S. army bombing planes were given to reserve officers of this district Saturday and Sunday. The flights were taken over the Hoover Dam project and surrounding vicinity.

Boulder City officers to make the flight were Majors Forrester and Garberg, Captains Weed, Davis, Harrison and Thaxton, Lieutenants Dexheimer, Looze, McKean, Gibbons, Watkins, Hugill, Futoransky, Chase, McDaniells and Threadgill.

Two officers, Captain Earl Smith and Lieutenant Brownson, were unable to participate.

Saturday morning Captain Harrison, in company with several Las Vegas officers, had the especial privilege of flying over the Grand canyon.
