

SUNDAY, MONDAY WILL BE WORK FREE FOR MEN AT THE RIVER

Only Few Necessary for Maintenance Will Work On Independence Day

The entire works on the Hoover Dam project will be completely closed down for two days for celebration of the Fourth of July, the officials of the Six Companies revealed today. All employees of the Six Companies, with the exception of those few necessary for maintenance, etc., will be laid off for two shifts July third and fourth.

This two day layoff was made possible partly by the fact that the
