

B. C. Dam Worker Succumbs to Hurts

Allen Jackson, 46 years of age, died at the Boulder City hospital at 2:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon as a result of multiple injuries sustained on March 7 when he fell from a form on Block 1 of the dam, on which he was working.

Jackson is survived by his ex-wife, whose residence is not known; by a ten year old daughter, Irene, who has not been located, and by a sister, Mrs. M. Nietche, of Rula, Nebraska. Previous to his death, Jackson had been employed by Six Companies Inc. as a carpenter.

The body is at the Parks Mortuary, Boulder City, and funeral arrangements will be announced later.
