

Reclamation Man Found Dead In L. V.

Charles DeKay, 55 year old reclamation bureau employe, was found dead in a Las Vegas hotel this morning, victim of heart disease.

The man had been suffering from heart trouble for several months and laid off from work about a week ago for treatment by a Las Vegas doctor and was found dead in the hotel this morning.

DeKay had been with the reclamation bureau for several years and had been on jobs in El Paso, Montana and other jobs. He was employed as a draftsman.
