

Home Construction In B. C. Continues

Construction of homes by Boulder City individuals continues, following completion of the government's schedule of home-building.

The home of L. T. Meisner, concrete contractor, at 528 Avenue K is being roofed this week, and will be finished in the near future. This building, a five-room concrete block structure, is being built by Meisner himself.

The home of Mr. Del Mar, Boulder City druggist, on Avenue I, has been started, the foundation having been prepared. It will be a four-room house.

The N. Mack home is under construction on Avenue I. Mack is connected with a local auto wrecking concern.

George H. Campbell, who built the Boulder City Catholic church building, is building a home at Avenue K and Wyoming for Mrs. Fanny Grant. Plastering is now under way.
