

Scout Camporee at Dam This Weekend

The annual Boy Scout Boulder Dam Camporee will be held Friday, Saturday and Sunday of this week, it was announced this morning by F. Edgar Mineer, member of the Moapa Scout council, which sponsors this event every year.

Approximately 300 Boy Scouts from southern Utah, northern Arizona and southern Nevada will participate in the affair, setting up their camp early Friday morning on the sands of the Colorado river at the site of Williamsville.

Friday afternoon will be devoted to getting the camp in order, while on Friday night a regular scout program will be given. Saturday the visiting scouts and their guests will be taken on a tour of the Boulder dam project, and in the evening a court of honor will be held. Following Sunday school Sunday morning the camp will be broken up and the various troops will leave for home.

Oscar Kirkham, regional scout executive at Salt Lake; A. A. Anderson, chief executive of the Timpanogas council at Provo, and T. G. Smith, scout executive of St. George, will all be present to participate in the big event.

Members of the Moapa council who are sponsoring the camporee include: Edwin Wells, chairman;

G. B. Snow, F. E. Mineer, W. L. Jones, R. O. Gibson, J. B. Robinson, Robert Wells, Clarence Lewis, Alex Swapp and Wallace Jones. J. B. Cazier is scout executive of the Moapa group.
