

Water Line To

Shops Being Set

27/32
The six-inch water line to the Six Companies shops at the foot of the "gulch" is being laid by crews in the employ of the contractors.

Ditching has been virtually completed and the iron pipe to supply water for the industrial "community" beyond the railroad track near the government camp soon will be in place.