

22 Surety Firms Write Bond for Hoover Dam

SAN FRANCISCO, Mar 17.—(U. P.)
—The largest sum ever pledged as a "performance" guarantee—$825,000 —has been paid to 22 American sur-ety companies, officials of the Six Companies, Inc., the syndicate that will build Boulder dam, announced today.

The premium was paid for a $5,- 000,000 performance bond posted for Six Companies to guarantee that the

(Continued on Page Two)

a day for delay; guarantees payment for all labor and materials, and insures the government against paying more than the contracted figure.