

D. E. Walters, wife and two babies arrived from Denver Wednesday to reside in one of the government houses. He is an assistant engineer and the son of the chief engineer of the bureau.

---

A. A. Bronson and new wife arrived Wednesday to reside in the government village. He is a levelman for the reclamation.

---

Leo Dunbar, wife and family, arrived Monday to take up residence in the U. S. house. He is the hydrographer for the project, from Colorado.

---

11132

C. W. Burningham and wife have moved into one of the new houses. He is in charge of surveys on the river at night, it being necessary to mark out the headings each time the headings are shot.

R. E. Hewes, reclamation garage mechanic, and family will arrive this week from Ellensburg, Wash., to live in the reclamation colony.