

Boulder Magician Does Stuff For Legion Meeting

2/10/32 ✓

Boulder City has a real magician.

He clerks at the Six Companies garage during the day. But occasionally in the evening he entertains with his magic.

His name is Erwin B. Jones, and his last performance was at Monday night's meeting of the Boulder City American Legion post, when he staged a disappearing act.

On the occasion of the installation of the Boulder City Legion charter, Jones did ring and handkerchief magic in a manner that brought forth comments that he must be professional.