

Who's Who Among B. C. Legionnaires

11/5/32
Rufus G. Thaxton, charter member, was overseas with the engineer forces, an aide to General Harbord. His hearing was injured by the big guns with which he worked for a time.

Later he was an engineer for the War Department and now is in charge of the townsite work in Boulder City. He is a thirty-second degree Mason.