

Who's Who in B. C.

Legion Circles

Marvin Naugle, of the bureau of reclamation staff, was in the ammunition train of the eighty-ninth division in France helping keep the artillery supplied with shells and necessities. He is a single man.

James I. Lee, formerly an active member in Ely, is a pioneer member in Boulder City. He is a veteran of the Big Time, having been in field artillery of the ninety-first division on the front in the final push. He is now on the time-keeping force of Six Companies Inc.

R. C. McShane, wartime flyer, is on the paymaster's force of Six Companies Inc., also a bachelor. He formerly was of Omaha.

Alfred C. Schlobohm is a navy man, hailing from Cleveland, where he was on the city engineering force. He is nephew of the famous Daddy Wagner at the river.

Rufus C. Thaxton, associate engineer in the reclamation bureau spent the week in Los Angeles.

Arnold M. Nezelen, electrician spent the holidays in Los Angeles.

Wm. Nelson, Rodman, spent a few days recently in Los Angeles and San Francisco.

Bert Ball, rodman, spent the week in San Francisco.

Harry Holt of Yakiman, Washington, is spending a few days on the project. He is connected with the Indian service at that place and has many old friends among the Six Company men who worked there.

Mrs. Browder entertained several friends at a watch party on New Years eve.

Albert Moser, reclamation bureau engineer will return this week end from his vacation spent at home in Denver.