

FIRST TWILIGHT LEAGUE BALL GAME IS TODAY

5/13/32
Six Company Team Plays
B. C. Merchants Opener for 12 Game Series

With a series of 12 games before June 2 scheduled, Boulder City's new twilight league will get going this afternoon at 4:30, the first game to be played by the Dam Builders and the Merchants, the first two teams to be organized this season.

Six five-inning games will be played by each of the four teams, all of Boulder City, in the league, the championship to be determined on a percentage basis.

The games will be played at the rate of four or so a week, to end the series about the time the hot weather has arrived. The formation of the league suggested by the Las Vegas players, for a season of inter-city activity, will not be hampered, rather augmented by the twilight league, games on Sunday being avoided in the twilight league.

The schedule, as worked out at Tuesday night's meeting, was as follows:

May 12—Dam Builders vs. Merchants.

May 13—Carpenters vs. Reclamation.

May 17—Merchants vs. Carpenters.

May 18—Reclamation vs. Dam Builders.

May 19—Reclamation vs. Merchants.

May 20—Dam Builders vs. Carpenters.

May 24—Reclamation vs. Carpenters.

May 25—Dam Builders vs. Merchants.

May 26—Merchants vs. Reclamation.

May 27—Dam Builders vs. Carpenters.

June 1—Reclamation vs. Dam Builders.

All the games will be started at 4:30 P. M. and will be five inning contests.
