

guilty before Judge Morse, sentence being deferred until tomorrow morning in order to give them time to get out of town. All sixteen had hit the highway according to latest checkup by city police officers, the other three remaining in the city jail.

All of the men admitted they had been making their living begging on the city streets and in the various clubs, and according to the arresting officers the majority were well supplied with money, "earned" during the day.

The campaign against this undesirable element will be continued from this time forward, city officers declared this morning, and with full cooperation of the municipal judge, the "moochers" will be weeded out and sent on their way.

Moocher Drive Is Started in Vegas

A drive on the "moochers" and "panhandlers" who have been living quite comfortably from their "earnings" mulct from Boulder dam workers and kind-hearted Las Vegas residents, was inaugurated last evening by city police officers, and landed some 19 in custody for the night.

Of this number, sixteen pleaded
