

Bud Bodell Quits, Is Rumor Today

3/27/33
It was reported this afternoon that Bud Bobell, chief of the reservation police for the past several years, has resigned the post and will go to work for the Six Companies in an investigation capacity.

While the rumor could not be confirmed, it is believed that the resignation is in and will take effect as soon as convenient with the government officials.