

Explosion Fatally Hurts F. B. Kassell

F. B. Kassell, 23 years of age, was fatally injured in a premature explosion occurring in the canyon at approximately 3:15 p. m. Saturday, just a few minutes before he was to go off shift. Kassell died soon after being taken to the Boulder hospital.

Kassell has been employed by the Six Companies Inc. since June 2, 1931, and was working in the capacity of jackhammer man at the time of his injury.

The deceased is survived by his widow, who is living in Las Vegas, and by his parents who reside in Llana, Texas.

Funeral services for Kassell will be held at the Parks mortuary chapel in Boulder City Wednesday of this week at 7:00 p. m.
