

Brot Oronite Cans Of Alki to B. C. Said

1/9/35
He brought alcohol on to the dam reservation in Ornite cans and used a dormitory room as a base from which to dispense it, according to reservation officers.

He landed in the reservation jail last evening, along with a gallon can half full of alcohol and four flasks full.

He is C. C. Cornell, formerly of room 282, dormitory two, Boulder City, now of the reservation bastille. He is held charged with possession and suspected of sale of alcohol or gin.

About 8:30 last evening reservation police arrested Cornell, who was a Six Companies employe, in his room, in possession of the quantity of the alcohol.

B. C. High Led First Frame, First Game

Boulder City high school was first to score in the first basketball game played by the team of the new Hoover dam community school Saturday.

And Boulder City high led at the end of the first quarter, though Tonopah then forged ahead and won the game 23 to 7.

Dale Bryant, gangling forward, made the first basket in the game, played on the Six Companies court, soon after the game started.

Eason, Tonopah guard, scored a basket, and Douglas, Tonopah center, a point on fouls, in the first quarter, and Howard Wirth made another field goal before the first frame ended. That left the score 4 to 3 in favor of the local quintet.

In the third quarter Bryant scored another and in the last Lyle Roush, guard, scored one on a foul. The other members of the Boulder team were Holden, guard; Pearce, center, and Smith, substitute forward.

Coach Duke Thayer's boys made their first appearance Saturday in their colorful new uniforms, which they themselves are paying for by working after school hours.

Boulder high will play Overton high next, late this week.
