

Dam Worker Hurt By Rock Blasting

313133
Charles McKenzie, Six Companies employe, received a fractured skull last evening when struck in the head by a rock, following a blast in the canyon.

The accident was rather a freakish one, McKenzie being up near Lookout Point when the blast went off. The rock, evidently dislodged by the blast on the floor of the canyon flew upward and struck McKenzie on the head.