

NUGGETS OF BOULDER COLOR

By Elton Garrett

YOUR NAME HERE?

The thrill of seeing one's name in print for the first time is a thrill indeed. Sometimes it's a thrill of one kind—sometimes another.

What sort of thrill it was depended upon how that name was used.

Has your name, dear reader, appeared in the Dam Rumor column of the Journal during the three months of existence of that bit of scandal-mongery? Perhaps you saw it, perhaps not. PERHAPS it has not appeared there as yet.

Lest you go on in uncertainty, we have connived with Mister B. C. Buzzard to end the uncertainty by publishing herewith, hereafter and hereupon a full and complete list of the names thus far used in the column. It's your chance; see if yours has been there; but don't be too certain of the future:
