

Washington—Charging that her rights were being invaded by the Boulder dam project, Arizona has brought suit to prohibit construction of the dam. Other Colorado river basin states and Secretary of the Interior Wilbur, will ask dismissal of the suit. Meanwhile work is going ahead on the dam. A model city for the work is being laid out, a railroad line is being built to the site, etc.