

Congress Party Will Visit Vegas

6/15/33

A congressional delegation, headed by Congressman J. G. Scrugham of Nevada, will arrive in Las Vegas next Monday evening to view the Charleston mountain reforestation work and development program and the Boulder dam project, according to word received today by President A. C. Grant of the chamber of commerce.

The party will be made up of Congressman Scrugham, Congressman Wm. L. Fiesinger of Ohio, Congressman A. P. Lamneck of Ohio and Congressman Fred A. Hartley, Jr., of New Jersey.

They are flying west by plane and will arrive in Los Angeles Sunday evening. They will be met by Secretary Nye Wilson of the chamber, and brought back to Las Vegas by automobile.

Congressmen Lamneck and Hartley are members of the committee on postoffices and post roads, under whose jurisdiction the Charleston Park highway would come.
