

Doctors to Meet, Program Planned

The second big convention to be held in Las Vegas during this week will open tomorrow, when a delegation of doctors from Nevada and California will meet for the Nevada State Medical association's 30th annual meeting. The auxiliary of the association will convene at the same time.

An interesting program has been arranged by the committee in charge, and distinguished speakers will address the delegation of physicians. The following events will be presented during Friday and Saturday, for the association:

President's address, Dr. O. Hovenden; address, Dr. C. G. Toland, Los Angeles; paper, Dr. Eugene S. Kilgore, San Francisco; address, Dr. W. A. Shaw, Reno; paper, Dr. James F. Percy, Los Angeles.

8 p. m., business meeting, Sal
(Continued on page Four)

Doctors

(Continued from page One)

Sagev hotel.

The program for Saturday is as follows:

Paper, Dr. Wm. H. Daniel, Los Angeles; address, Dr. John C. Wilson, Los Angeles; address, Dr. Burnett W. Wright, Los Angeles; discussion, Dr. G. W. Pierce and Dr. G. B. O'Connor, San Francisco.

Inspection of the damsite.

The program for the Women's Auxiliary:

Friday, Sept. 29th, 10 a. m., Sal Sagev hotel. President's address, Mrs. A. J. Hood, Reno; address, Mrs. James F. Percy, Los Angeles; address, Mrs. George F. Smith, Reno; address, Mrs. J. N. Van Meter.

12:00, luncheon, Apache cafe.

3:00-5:00 p. m., tea at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Balcom.

7:00-10:00, open house, at the home of Dr. and Mrs. J. N. Van Meter.

Program for Saturday, Sept 30: Breakfast at the home of Dr. and Mrs. J. N. Van Meter.

10 a. m., business meeting, Sal Sagev hotel.

11:00, inspection trip to dam-site.