*All quantities in acre-feet.

†The Consolidated Decree entered March 27, 2006, in Arizona v. California allocates 71,616 acre-feet for lands within the boundaries of the Fort Yuma Indian Reservation in the State of California. By settlement agreement executed February 14, 2005, by the Quechan Indian Tribe (Tribe), the United States, the State of California, the Metropolitan Water District of Southern California (MWD), and the Coachella Valley Water District: (1) 64,616 acre-feet of the Tribe's California rights are immediately available to the Tribe; (2) the full 71,616 acre-feet will become available to the Tribe in Year 2035; and (3) 13,000 acre-feet of the Tribe's California water rights decreed in the U.S. Supreme Court's 2006 Consolidated Decree are available for diversion to the MWD through Year 2035. Under the settlement agreement, beginning in 2035, certain other conditions may occur between MWD and the Tribe affecting MWD's use of the Tribe's water rights.
