Please study more----water is going to become more important as the population continues to grow and resources get scarce. If we don't act now we will have to later.

Pamela Alexander
Salt Lake City