

CVPCP FY15 Projects, 6/26/2015

Project	Proposed Activity	Funding
Coyote Ridge (UTC) Serpentine Habitat Acquisition Santa Clara County Open Space Authority FY 2010-funded project, obligated from a prior recipient.	Fee title acquisition of 1,831 acres of serpentine soils habitat at the United Technology Company property at Coyote Ridge to benefit Santa Clara Valley dudleya, Metcalf Canyon jewelflower, CA red-legged frog, CA tiger salamander, and Bay checkerspot butterfly in Santa Clara County.	$400,000 (Funds are from the deobligated 2011 Kelsey Ranch conservation easement project.)
F-2 Protection of Alkali Scrub Habitat on the Sand Ridge at the Atwell Island Project, Kings and Tulare Counties, California Bureau of Land Management	Fee title acquisition of 251 acres on the Sand Ridge of the historic Tulare Lakebed to benefit blunt-nosed leopard lizard, San Joaquin kit fox, and Tipton kangaroo rat in Kings and Tulare counties.	$650,000 (also being funded by the HRP for $145,000 for a total of $795,000.) (Funds, in part, are from the deobligated 2011 Kelsey Ranch conservation easement project.)
R-2 Dos Rios Ranch Riparian Brush Rabbit Recovery Project River Partners	Restoration of 175 acres of historic floodplain forest that are now degraded farmlands back to riparian floodplain habitat at Dos Rios Ranch to benefit riparian brush rabbit, riparian woodrat, valley elderberry longhorn beetle, least Bell's vireo, and western yellow-billed cuckoo in Stanislaus County.	$447,415
S-3 Environmental DNA Assay for Listed Vernal Pool Branchiopods and Biodiversity Assessment: Applications for Range-wide	Project will design, validate, and calibrate species-specific assays for detecting species through sampling of eDNA in four vernal pool complexes to benefit Conservancy fairy shrimp, vernal pool fairy shrimp, vernal pool tadpole shrimp, and CA tiger	$322,626

Project	Proposed Activity	Funding
Surveys and Conservation Prioritization UC Davis	salamander in Sacramento and Merced counties.
2015 Allocation		$1,492,000
Project Costs Total		-$1,846,580
Program Administration & Overhead Costs Total		-$348,921
Prior Year Project Modification Commitments		¹-$26,539
Funds retrieved from the Deobligated 2011 Kelsey Ranch Conservation Easement Project		$730,040

¹$2,741 for 2013 Population Genetics Research on Callippe Silverspot Butterfly project;
$23,798 for 2012 Tiburon Paintbrush at Coyote Ridge project.