

CVPCP FY19 Projects

Project	Proposed Activity	Funding
San Joaquin River National Wildlife Refuge Land Protection Project USFWS Regional Realty Office	Funds are provided to FWS to conduct land appraisals in the vicinity of the San Joaquin River NWR in order to have values in hand to present to willing sellers of potential lands for inclusion in the Refuge.	$42,400
Day Ranch Conservation Project Sierra Foothills Conservancy	Conservation easement on the 356-acre Dry Creek Ranch. The ranch contains grassland, vernal pool, and riparian/ aquatic habitat mosaics, and is within the southern Sierra Foothills vernal pool ecoregion.	$740,480
Epidemiological Attributes of Sarcoptic Mange in a Population of San Joaquin Kit Foxes: Development and Implementation of Strategies to Mitigate an Epidemic CSU Stanislaus ESRP	The objectives are to use field efforts and monitoring, laboratory analyses, and modeling to: (1) develop and test strategies to control or eliminate mange among SJKF; (2) determine whether mange is occurring in SJKF outside of the Bakersfield population; (3) determine the origin of the mite that is causing mange in SJKF; (4) assess the impacts (both current and potential) of mange on this and other SJKF populations; and (5) implement strategies to minimize or eliminate mange in SJKF populations.	$187,106
2016 Allocation		$1,492,000
Project Costs Total		$969,986
Funds to Prior Year Projects		$169,711*
Program Administration & Overhead Costs Total		$352,303