

Agenda
M&I Shortage Workshop
November 21, 2000

1. Agenda and Handouts
2. Forecast Process (John Renning)
3. Allocation Process (John Renning)
4. Gaming Exercise (John Renning)
5. Contractor Allocation Process - Ag and M&I (Chuck Marshall)
6. Papers Describing Terms and Processes Used
 - a. Historic Use (Chuck Marshall)
 - b. Public Health and Safety (Betty Riley Simpson)
 - c. Extra Ordinary Water Conservation (Lucille Billingsly)
 - d. Second Tier Water Supply (Betty Riley Simpson)
 - e. Irrigation water transfer and/or conversion to M&I use receives irrigation shortage if transfer and/or conversion is after September 1994 (Betty Riley Simpson)
 - f. Area of Origin (John Renning)
7. Matrix 1994- 1997- 2000 (Betty Riley Simpson)
8. Contractors' Questions - Reclamation's Responses (Team)
9. Proposed M&I Shortage Policy (Team)
10. Next Meeting

John Davis, Regional Resources Manager. This includes the Water Rights and Repayment Branch and Program Management Branch including the Water Conservation staff

John Renning will be discussing the issues regarding forecasting, allocations, and the model runs. He is a Hydraulic Engineer and works in the Central Valley Operations Office. He has represented Reclamation on the Bay Delta Hearings.

Donna Tegelman is the Chief, Water Rights and Repayment Branch. They have been negotiating the M&I water service draft form of contract for the CVP contract renewals.

Charles Marshall is the Repayment Specialist, Water rights and Repayment Branch. They have been negotiating the M&I water service draft form of contract for the CVP contract renewals.

Mary Johannis is the Chief, Programs Management Branch. This branch includes the responsibility for development and implementation of the Water Management Plans.

Lucille Billingsly is a Water Conservation Specialists, Program Management Branch. She helped develop the Standard Criteria for Evaluating Water Management Plans.

Tracy Slavin is a Water Conservation Specialists, Program Management Branch. He helped develop the Standard Criteria for Evaluating Water Management Plans.

Betty Riley Simpson is a Resources Management Projects Officer. She is coordinating the finalization of the M&I Shortage Policy.