

17th Annual Lake Tahoe Summit

The Lake Tahoe Summit we held at the Sand Harbor State Park on the east shore of Lake Tahoe. Senator Harry Reid (D-NV) hosted the event, which focused on investing in the future of Lake Tahoe through public-private partnerships. Gov. Brian Sandoval (R-NV), Gov. Jerry Brown (D-CA), Sen. Dianne Feinstein (D-CA), Rep. Tom McClintock (R-CA) attended with Former Vice President Al Gore as the keynote speaker.

Lake Tahoe Summit

Key Note Speaker former Vice-President Al Gore speaks about the clarity of Lake Tahoe, and the threats to the environment from climate change and global warming. "Protecting Lake Tahoe is important to the economy of Nevada and California."

Myrnie Mayville, Lake Tahoe Wetlands Program Manager discusses ongoing projects with the MP Regional Director David Murillo at the Tahoe Summit at Sand Harbor, Lake Tahoe Monday August 19.

Kenneth Parr and Shana Kaplan discuss the Summit activities.

Senate Majority Leader Harry Reid (D-NV) opens the Summit.

Congressman Mark Amodei (R-NV) addresses the crowd.

Russian Ambassador to the United States Sergey Kislyak, Senator Reid's guest, looks on from the stage as remarks are made.

Nevada Governor Brian Sandoval discusses the importance of Lake Tahoe to the economy of Nevada. "The undertaking here to protect and preserve Lake Tahoe is a model to the rest of the nation and the world."

California Governor Jerry Brown discusses the collaboration among the states to protect Lake Tahoe.

Senator Dianne Feinstein (D-CA) closes the proceedings with a Call to Action to continue the hard work that began 17 years ago to improve environmental conditions at Lake Tahoe. "In 1997 Lake Tahoe was the worst. Since then through the efforts of all of you, we have 11 feet of additional clarity."