

Folsom Powerhouse Electricity Fair

By Winetta Owens, Public Affairs

On Saturday, September 12, 2015, the Folsom Powerhouse State Historic Park hosted its Annual Electricity Fair. The fair welcomes families to join in the celebration showing exhibits, demonstrations of electricity, science projects, electric cars, and the visitor center.

Philip Hartvig with his Hybrid Chevy Volt

Rick Thomas shows visitors LED bulbs are more energy efficient

Folsom Powerhouse Electricity Fair

Eva Johnson, Eliza Raya, Sarah Tanner, Ben Tanner and Dalton Branson with solar powered canoe

Ken McKowen shows children how contaminants affect the environment

Calif. Sunlight Corp. Jeremy Kong talks to Calif. State Parks' Tom Ross about the solar balloon used to cook food

Josephine Barajas and Fparveen Malhi show how lemons used with copper and zinc wires can produce energy

ARWEC's Joan Roush talks to visitors about turbines generating energy

Folsom Powerhouse State Historic Park Visitor Center contains exhibits and information on the history of the powerhouse