

Tuesday, March 20, 2018

1:00 – 3:00 p.m.

Klamath Project 2018 Hydrologic Update Meeting #2

Klamath Basin Area Office, Bureau of Reclamation

LOCATION: Klamath County Fairgrounds, Exhibit Hall #2, South 6th Street, Klamath Falls, Oregon

PURPOSE: To inform Klamath Project contractors on current hydrologic conditions in the Klamath Basin and considerations for 2018 Klamath Project Operations. Reclamation will not cover preliminary Klamath Project water allocations or anticipated irrigation start dates at this meeting.

AGENDA

1:00-2:00pm

1. Welcome & Introductions (Christie Kalkowski, Mid-Pacific Region Deputy Public Affairs Officer, Bureau of Reclamation)

2. Opening Statements

- Klamath Water Users Association, (Scott White, Executive Director)
- Bureau of Reclamation (Jeff Nettleton, Area Manager, Klamath Basin Area Office)
- U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service (Dan Blake, Deputy Field Supervisor and Greg Austin Refuge Project Leader)

3. Current Water Conditions (Jeff Nettleton)

- 2018 Water Year Snowpack and Precipitation
- Mid-March Natural Resource Conservation Service Inflow Forecast Overview

4. Key Components Considered for 2018 Water Management (Jeff Nettleton)

5. Current and Planned Efforts/Activities/Timing (Jeff Nettleton)

6. Future Updates (Jeff Nettleton)

2:00-2:45pm

7. Question/Answer Session

2:45-3:00pm

8. Closing & Adjourn

For more information about the meeting date/time/location please contact:

Laura Williams, Public Affairs Specialist, by email ljwilliams@usbr.gov or by calling 541-880-2581.