

Shasta Dam Tour

Tour Information

The friendly and knowledgeable tour guide staff at Shasta Dam invites you to come along on a free guided tour of the dam and power plant. Tours are offered 7 days a week, except winter Federal holidays. Tours include an elevator ride down inside the dam, where guides will discuss the history, purpose and construction of this huge project. After the short walk through the dam, the tour heads over to the powerhouse for a chance to view the state's largest hydroelectric generating station.

- Tours take approximately 1 hour
- First come, first served
- Fully accessible
- Maximum of 40 people allowed on each tour
- Pick up FREE tour tickets at Visitor Center.
