

7/1/2017 DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR Mail - Navajo Generating Plant comment.

1/1

NGS, BOR WRO <ngs@usbr.gov>

Navajo Generating Plant comment.

1 message

Pliny Draper Thu, May 18, 2017 at 6:44 AM

To: "ngs@usbr.gov" ngs@usbr.gov

Methane is a primary component of natural gas. It is also a greenhouse gas, if it leaks into the air, before being used (leaking pipe, for example). Already the Four Corners area has one highest methane cloud readings, in the world. This leads to the question of where and how will the natural gas be transported. Another question is the effect to the earth below ground, when the natural gas is extracted.

Sent from my T-Mobile 4G LTE device