John W. Keys III Pump-Generating Plant Guided Tour

Public tours begin May 26, 2023. Tours are available on a first-come, first-served basis at 9 a.m., 11 a.m., 1:30 p.m., and 3:30 p.m. Pacific Time, running approximately one hour. Public tours end for the year Oct. 31 and will resume in May 2024. Tour availability will be limited. Admission is free.

The tour begins at the tour parking lot on the east side of the dam where you will board a bus and be taken to the pump-generating plant. The tour concludes with a bus ride over top of the dam.

All tour participants are required to pass through a metal detector prior to beginning the tour. Attendees may bring cameras on the tour, but all camera cases must remain in vehicles. Onsite storage for personal belongings is unavailable. The following items are prohibited on tour:

- Weapons
- Backpacks/fanny packs
- Purses/bags
- Packages

For accessibility accommodations and to inquire about tour availability, call 509-633-9265. Tours are subject to change and can be canceled without notice.
