¹ Non-federal entities include, for example, businesses, non-profit organizations, water districts, tribes, universities, and state and local governments.

² Example for #4: Examples include (1) investigating or prosecuting violations of criminal or civil law; (2) representing the United States in litigation or other proceedings; or (3) scientific or social science research, when the research will have a direct and substantial effect on the financial interests of non-federal entities.

³ Example for #5a: A GS-13 Analyst regularly provides updates to the Director regarding the status of different funding opportunity announcements. The Analyst does not review or make any decisions on the award of any funding opportunities and would not be required to file an OGE-450 report.

⁶ The employee will be required to file a confidential financial disclosure report for the time spent while acting or detailed to a covered position if that time exceeds 60 cumulative days in a calendar year. The time does not have to be successive or in the same covered position, so an employee that spends 30 days one month and 31 days three months later in acting positions would be required to file an OGE-450 report covering those 61 days.
