SECURITY RESPONSE FORCE PHYSICAL FITNESS TESTING REQUIREMENTS

1. The Bureau of Reclamation requires applicants for the armed proprietary guard position (also known as a Security Response Force (SRF) guard) and current armed proprietary guards to successfully complete a physical fitness test as part of the hiring process and annually as a condition of employment. All applicants and current proprietary guards are required to complete all 4 categories listed on page A2 and achieve a combined score of 100 points or higher.
 - A. The participant must achieve the minimum repetitions or time requirement in each category.
 - B. The participant has 2 minutes to complete the push-up category.
 - C. The participant has 2 minutes to complete the sit-up category.
 - D. The participant is afforded a 10-minute rest period between the testing of each category.
 - E. The 1.5-mile run will not be conducted inside Reclamation facilities.
 - F. A participant can utilize a treadmill to conduct the 1.5-mile run when:
 - (1) Snow or icy weather conditions make running outside unsafe ,
 - (2) for initial hiring or annual physical fitness test only, and
 - (3) with prior approval from the Protection Services Program Manager (PSPM).
 - G. The participant will start the 40-yard dash in the prone position.
 - H. All physical fitness tests will be administered or reviewed by SRF personnel who have completed the Federal Law Enforcement Training Center—Law Enforcement Fitness Coordinator Training Program.
 - I. The SRF Training Center (SRFTC) will conduct periodic site reviews of the physical fitness test for proprietary guards. Deviations of the standards set-forth by the SRFTC will be reported to the PSPM.
 - J. The PSPM may require SRFTC instructors to oversee or administer physical fitness tests at specific sites to ensure standardization of the process, procedures, and documentation.
