

Miguel Arias-Paíc

Mining Reverse Osmosis Waste- Beneficial Water and Mineral Recovery: Case Studies Across the United States.

Miguel Arias-Paíc has worked for 15 years as a civil engineer with the Bureau of Reclamation, technically leading diverse projects such as California's Central Valley Agricultural Drainage Management, Leadville, Colorado Mine Drainage Treatment and Cottonwood, Arizona Direct Potable Reuse. He enjoys mountain biking and running with the multiple dogs his wife brings home to surprise him.