Subject: Transmittal of Reclamation Reform Act of 1982 (RRA) 101 Training Notebook

Dear Ladies and Gentlemen:

The purpose of this letter is to provide you with a copy of the "RRA 101" notebook and the compact disc (CD) that have been designed as a training tool for Reclamation RRA Staff and District RRA staff.

The enclosed CD contains an electronic file that can be viewed using Microsoft PowerPoint software. This software must be installed on your computer in order to view the presentation on the enclosed CD. The instructions for viewing the CD's presentation are on the label on the inside of the book cover. The enclosed notebook contains hard copies of the presentation material on the CD for reference while viewing the CD or for use by those who do not have PowerPoint software. The following topics are included in the presentation:

- I. The History of Acreage Limitation
- II. Frequently Used RRA Terms
- III. Qualified Recipient vs Limited Recipient vs Prior Law Recipient
- IV. Attribution of Land
- V. Excess Land and Full-Cost Land
- VI. Opportunities to Exceed the Acreage Limitation Entitlements
- VII. Other Landholders
- VIII. Leases and Farm Operating Arrangements
- IX. RRA Forms, the Foundation of the Program
- X. Legal Descriptions
- XI. RRA Responsibilities (Landholder, Farm Operator, District, and Reclamation)
- XII. Overview of the RRA Program Evaluation
- XIII. Overview of RRA Assessments
- XIV. Final Determinations and Appeals
- XV. Resources

The RRA 101 presentation will also be available on the RRA website in the near future in both PowerPoint and Adobe Portable Document Format (PDF).

If you would like additional assistance or have questions about the RRA 101 materials, please contact the appropriate Reclamation office.

Sincerely,

Richard W. Rizzi
Manager, Land Resources Office
