

Brown Trout - Incentivized Harvest Program

January 2021 update

Glen Canyon National Recreation Area

Ken Hyde – Chief of Science and Resource Mngt. GLCA
Jeff Arnold – Fisheries Biologist GLCA

Funding

- 2020-2021: NPS funds = $160,000 including $30K specifically for Tribal Youth Program
- 2020-2021: BOR funds = $100,000
- 2022: NPS funds = $96,000
- 2023: NPS funds = $100,000
- 2024: NPS funds = $100,000

- In 2022-2024 we hope to use NPS funds as match and obtain AZGFD, BOR, or other partner funds to keep program at around $200K each year. GCC administrative fees are 20%.

Media Outreach by NPS and Partners

Sept-Nov with Media Outlets, Individual Angling Organizations, & Social Media

02/12/2020

Incentivized Harvest of Brown Trout Begins Nov. 11 - Glen Canyon National Recreation Area (U.S. National Park Service)

NEWS RELEASE

Incentivized Harvest of Brown Trout Begins Nov. 11

Brown Trout

NPS

News Release Date: October 28, 2020

Contact: National Park Service: Mary Plumb, Office of Communications, Public Affairs, 928-640-3478

Contact: Arizona Game and Fish Department: Tom Cadden, Public Information Officer, 623.236.7392

Subscribe | What is RSS

Local Sports Things To Do Business Travel Politics Nation / World Obituaries E-Edition

To protect native fish, agencies put a bounty on brown trout in the Colorado River

Anton L. Delgado Arizona Republic

Published 8:00 a.m. MT Nov. 20, 2020 | Updated 9:24 a.m. MT Nov. 20, 2020

View Comments

15 Photos

VIEW FULL GALLERY

Agencies put a bounty on brown trout to help native fish

Wildlife agencies launched a program to cull brown trout, paying anglers to catch the fish as a way of protecting native fish downstream.

Opening Week Nov 11, 2020

Fish Processing Areas

Incentivized Harvest Registration Site

Brown Trout Registration Site
Navajo Bridge Visitor Center

Courtyard and Freezer for Fish Deposit

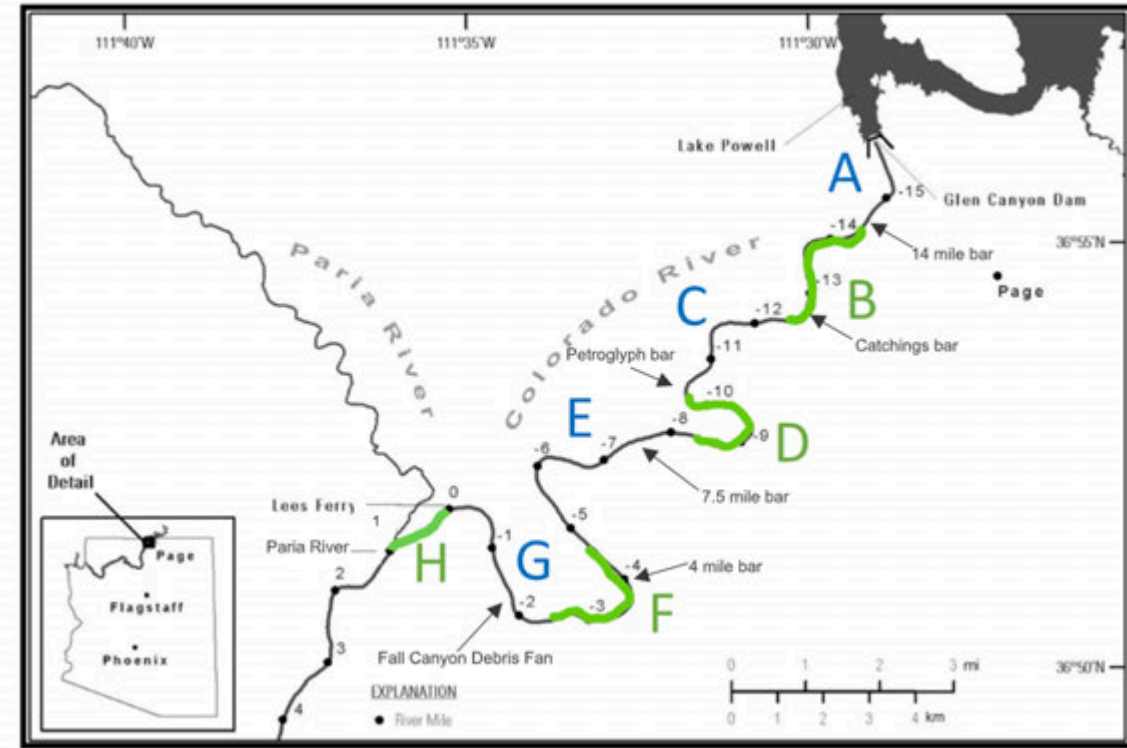

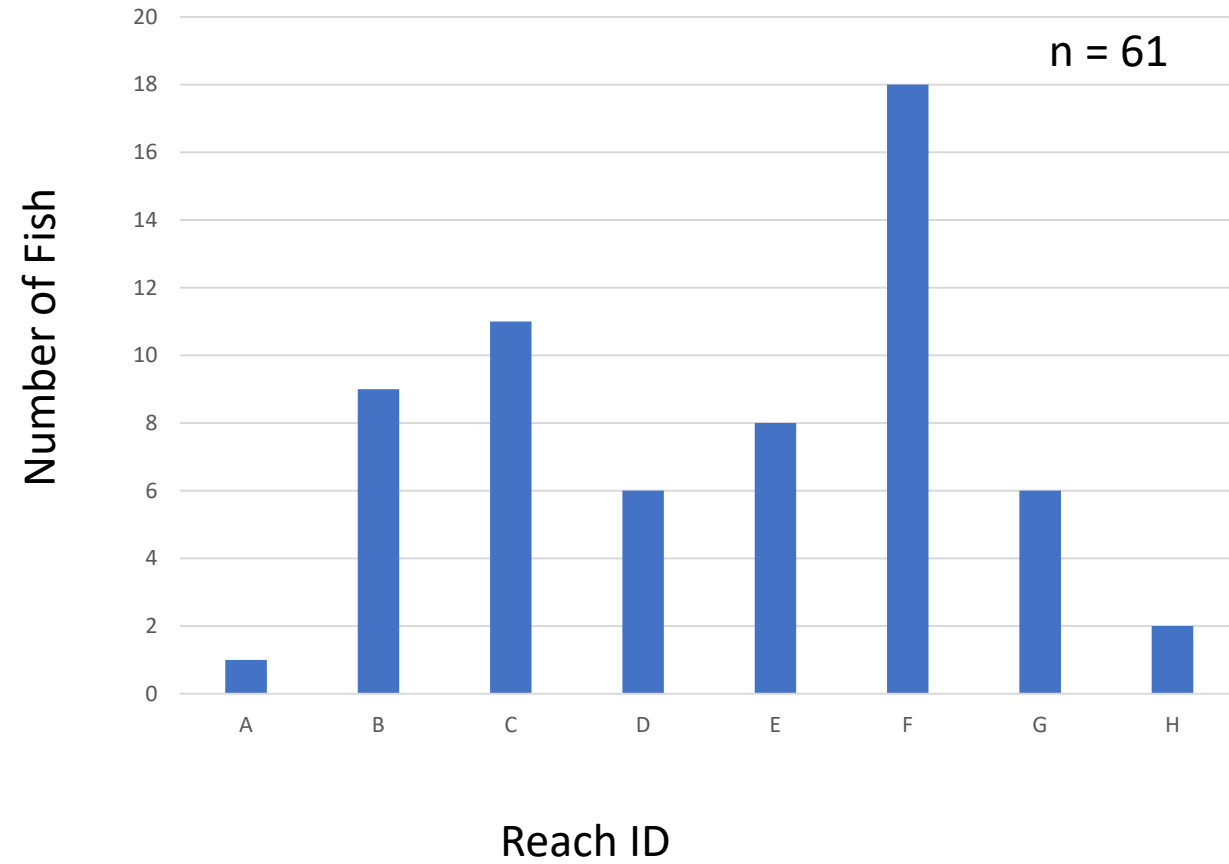

Harvested Brown Trout – November to December

Length Frequency of Harvested Brown Trout Nov 11 – Dec 31, 2020

Reported River Reach for Harvested Brown Trout

Notes for the Incentivized Harvest

Nov 11- Dec 31, 2020

31 anglers harvested BNT (72 fish)
72 x $25 = $1,800 paid out

Two Anglers submitted RBT (10 fish)
- From Paria Riffle Walk-in Fishery area

Three BNT - PIT tagged

One BNT - sonic tag

Harvested brown trout with sonic tag

Questions?

